Transformation Project Manager

CrediaBank, which was created through the merger of Attica Bank and the former Pancreta Bank, is looking for a Transformation Project Manager to join our dynamic team.

Job details

Job type: Full-timeLocation: Athens, Greece

Apply via email to: recruitment@crediabank.com

About the job

CrediaBank is seeking a motivated Project Manager to join the Bank's Transformation unit. The role focuses on monitoring and supporting the successful delivery of projects, working closely with various business and IT units ensuring alignment with the Bank's business and strategic objectives. The ideal candidate will bring experience in project management or in coordinating roles and demonstrate strong organizational skills and ability to manage teams and propose solutions.

Responsibilities

- Coordinate, monitor and support the delivery of projects in accordance with agreed timelines, budgets and business objectives
- Facilitate effective communication and collaboration among all involved teams (technical, business and administrative)
- Develop and maintain detailed project plans, monitor milestones, manage risks and change requests using established project management methodologies
- Track project performance and prepare structured progress reports for stakeholders
- Ensure that project deliverables meet the required quality standards and specifications

Qualifications

- University degree in Business Administration, Information Technology or any related field
- Minimum three (3) years of experience in project management or coordinating product/service delivery
- Excellent command of Greek and English, both written and spoken
- Excellent computer skills, with emphasis on MS Office applications
- Project management certification (e.g., PMP, PRINCE2) will be considered an asset.
- Very good knowledge of project management tools (e.g., Jira, MS Project)
- Good understanding of banking systems and products (such as T24, Jira, Newton, CMS, etc.)
- Strong planning, organizational and time-management skills
- Effective communication skills and ability to collaborate across multidisciplinary teams
- Learning agility and willingness to continuously develop
- Ability to address issues, manage crises and solve problems efficiently
- Flexibility and adaptability in a continuously evolving environment

About CrediaBank

CrediaBank was created through the merger of Attica Bank and the former Pancreta Bank and is the 5th largest bank in Greece in terms of assets. It is a modern banking institution with a network of 65 branches and 5 business centers across the country, serving approximately 300,000 individuals and businesses with a wide portfolio of deposit, investment, and insurance products, mutual funds, loans, and brokerage services. Customer service is a top priority for CrediaBank, which is why it is the only bank that welcomes customers both with and without appointments, offers cashier services available throughout the day, and operates with extended hours through the CrediaConnect service.

CrediaBank operates as a credit institution supervised by the Bank of Greece, strictly applying both European and national regulatory frameworks governing the operation of banks. More information about the Bank is available on our website www.crediabank.com

We respect your personal data

CrediaBank, taking into account that the personal data of candidate employees is of great importance, informs you in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the relevant provisions of the applicable Greek legislation for the protection of personal data, in its capacity as controller of the type of personal data it collects, the reason they are collected and processed and how long they are retained here Ενημέρωση για την Επεξεργασία Δεδομένων Προσωπικού Χαρακτήρα - CrediaBank.